How can YOU build a world without hate?

“I am only one, but I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something. And because I cannot do everything, I will not refuse to do the something that I can do.”

— EDWARD EVERETT HALE

WHO: Students in grades 3-12 in Georgia, Alabama, South Carolina, and Tennessee schools

WHAT: The contest asks you to think about how to build a world without hate. What can you do to make the world a place where all people are accepted and appreciated for who they are?

HOW: Through original written or artistic expression:
- Written work includes essays, poetry, short stories, screen plays
- Art/Media includes video, drawing, paintings, photography, cloth, collage and computer art
- Elementary students may choose to read and reflect on the book “One” by Kathryn Otoshi

WHEN: Students create and submit entries to ADL SE Regional office in fall 2014 and winter 2015. Deadline for all entries is March 13, 2015.

The awards ceremony and program will be hosted on Sunday April 26, 2015 to honor and recognize winners and runners-up of the contest. Entries will be displayed at the Kennesaw State University Museum of History and Holocaust Education through the summer 2015.

WHY: Because we’re counting on YOU to make our world No Place For Hate®!

SUBMISSIONS AND MORE INFORMATION:
Visit www.adl.org/nohateatlanta or contact ADL Education Director Erin Beacham